Property Description

Location: Nether Stowey, Bridgwater

Enjoying an elevated position within the historic village of Nether Stowey, this beautifully presented detached property offers spacious and highly versatile accommodation.

The ground floor features three generous reception rooms, a bright conservatory, a well-appointed kitchen/breakfast room, a bathroom, and a separate WC. Upstairs, there are three double bedrooms and a further bathroom.

Outside, the property benefits from ample private parking, a garage, and additional parking to the front. The established front and rear gardens include a raised seating area—an ideal spot to relax and take in the surroundings.

ACCOMMODATION - This double-glazed and gas-centrally heated accommodation briefly comprises a kitchen/breakfast room, inner hallway, lounge, conservatory, dining room, study, cloakroom, and bathroom on the ground floor. Upstairs, there are three bedrooms and a bathroom accessed from the landing.

A shared driveway leads to the driveway providing ample parking and a garage, with further parking available at the front. There are established gardens to the front and rear aspects, including a raised seating area.

LOCATION - The historic village of Nether Stowey has many facilities, including a library, shop, restaurant, butchers, three public houses and Quantock Medical Centre.

The Quantock Hills offer a wide range woodland and moorland walks. Slightly further away, the bustling market town of Bridgwater offers a wider range of amenities and has excellent transport links to the M5 motorway and mainline rail link.

CONSERVATION AREA

Nether Stowey features a designated Conservation Area focused on its historic village centre, with additional areas covering the Stowey Court/St Mary's Church complex and The Mount (a scheduled 11th-century motte-and-bailey castle). It is known for its high-quality historic character, and developments are subject to strict planning controls, including considerations for bat species and ecological impacts.
